

Litigation Associate Opening

GrayRobinson, a full-service law and government consulting firm with 16 offices in Florida and Washington, D.C., has an opening in our Pensacola office for a Litigation Associate with 3 to 7 years' litigation experience involving commercial and business disputes, real estate, creditor's rights, probate, trust and guardianship law and construction law. The successful candidate must be admitted to the Florida Bar and have excellent analytical, research and writing skills. Trial experience is a plus. Additional skills include the ability to successfully work on multiple projects simultaneously and autonomously, with keen attention to detail.

We offer a competitive salary and comprehensive benefit package in a fast-paced, professional environment. GrayRobinson, P.A. is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
